1902-011 Chancery Causes: Bird Dew & Hale J vs. J. M. Prichard &c
Lee Co.

Reese, Ward

CA-Debt
T-Property

Virginia,

In the Circuit Court of Lee County.

---

To the Honorable W. T. Miller, Judge of said Court:-

----------Humbly complaining, your orators, Bird, Dew & Hale, a corporation, would respectfully represent and shew unto your Honor that on the 3rd day of March 1897, they obtained in said Court a judgement against D. G. Reese, for $26.75, and against D. G. Reese, J. M. Prichard and J. M. Ward for $42.92, with interest on said sums from the said 3rd day of March 1897, until paid, and against said Reese for $2.19 costs, and against said Reese, Prichard and Ward for $15.47 costs, on which said judgement against said Reese, Prichard and Ward a writ of fiera facias was duly issued from the Clerk's Office of the said Court and directed to the Sheriff of the said county returnable to the 2nd May Rules 1897, and which was on the return day thereof returned by the said Sheriff's deputy with the following return endorsed thereon, to-wit: " Not executed no property found, this May 17th 1897, Jas. M. Weston, D. S. for W. P. Weston, S. L. C. " A copy of said judgement is herewith filed marked " A " as part hereof, and a copy of the docketing of the same is herewith filed as part hereof marked " B," and a copy of the fi fa and the return endorsed thereon is herewith filed as part hereof marked " C." . Now your orator further states that the said J. M. Prichard is seized and possessed of a valuable tract or parcel of land lying and being in said county in Turkey Cove containing 28 acres more or less; he also owns a tract of about 103 acres of land in the Crab Orchard in said county, bounded by the lands of A. L. Reese, Arminta Reese and others, and on this tract there may be a vendor's lien for a balance of purchase money, but on the 28 acre tract there is no lien except that of your orators. Your orators are advised that their said judgement against the said Reese Prichard and Ward, no part of which has been paid, is a subsisting lien under the statute laws of the state of Virginia, on the said real estate, and your orators alleges that the rents and profits of the said real estate will not satisfy their said judgement in five years, and that they have a right to subject the 28 acre tract to the payment of their said judgement, ~~the same being~~ ment , the same being unincumbered except by their said lien; and the said Reese and Ward have no real estate so far as they know.

In tender consideration whereof for as much as your orators are remediless in the premises save by the aid of a Court of Equity where matters of this kind are alone and properly cognizable your orators pray that the said D. G. Reese, J. N. Pritchard and J. M. Ward be made the parties defendant to this bill and required to answer the same [illegible] on oath [illegible] that the said real estate or so much thereof as may be necessary be sold to satisfy your orators judgment, and that the said 28 acre tract or a sufficiency thereof be sold first, and that your Honor will grant unto your orators such other further and general relief as may be consistent with equity and the case requires. May process issue, directed, etc. And your orators xxx will ever pray, etc.

This cause came on this day to be heard upon the bill, process executed, the cause matured at Rules and set for hearing, argument of counsel for plaintiff, and it appearing to the Court that the defendants have neither plead nor answered, the bill is taken for confessed. And ~~thereupon~~ upon consideration of all which the Court doth order and decree the plaintiffs recover against D. G. Reese the sum of $28.94, with legal interest on $26.75 part thereof from the 3rd day of March 1897, until paid; and that the plaintiffs recover against D. G. Reese, J. M. Pritchard and J. M. Ward the sum of $58.39 with legal interest on $42.92 part thereof from the 3rd day of March 1897, until paid; and that the complainants recover the costs of this suit against D. G. Reese, J. M. Pritchard and J. M. Ward. The Court further adjudges, orders and decrees that unless the defendants pay the said sums of money within thirty days from the rising of this Court that George W. Blankenship, who is hereby appointed a Special Commissioner for the purpose do sell the 28 acres of ~~land~~ land described in the bill, or so much thereof as may be ~~xxxxx~~ necassary to satisfy the said sum of $58.39, with the interest thereon and the costs of this suit and commissions of sale, at the front door of the Court House of Lee County, Virginia, on the first day of some Court to be held for said County, on a credit of one and two years time, except as to the costs of suit and commissions of sale he will require to be paid in cash. As to the deferred payments he will ~~xxxxx~~ require fom the purchaser bonds ~~from the date of sale~~ with interest ~~fr~~ from the date of sale, waiving the homestead with approved security. But before executing this decree he will execute bond in the penalty of $1 00.00 before the Clerk of this Court conditioned according to law, he will then advertise the time place and terms of sale for at least thirty days by posting written notice thereof at the front door of said Court House of said County and in the vicinity of the land, and report his action to the next of this Court. And the cause is continued
